

Skowyt, Running away

All his life
He was coming down
And what he received was screaming in face
He always want to blame people
shout freak is(?) here !
Choose your path and walk away.
Choose yourself be yourself.
Told you there`s no turning back.
Running away, you`re running away.
Better Sleep with what i hope it (?)
You never know who`s on your trial.

All his life
He was coming down
And what he received was screaming in face
He always want to blame people
shout freak is here !
Running away always running away.
Running away always running away.
Choose your path and walk away.
Choose yourself be yourself.
Told you there`s no turning back.
Running away, you`re running away.
Better Sleep with what i hope it
You never know who`s on your trial.

All his life
He was coming down
And what he received was screaming in face
He always want to blame people
shout freak is here !
Running away always running away.
Running away always running away.
You know you just can`t turn back sometimes
You have to rise your hands sometimes
Release your anger forget your pain
You can`t be neutral in a moving trial
Can`t be neutral in a moving trial
Can`t be neutral in a moving trial

All his life
He was coming down
... what he received was screaming in face
He always want to blame people
shout freak is here !
Running away always running away.
Running away always running away.
Can`t be neutral in a moving trial
Can`t be neutral in a moving trial
Can`t be neutral in a moving trial
