

Skulker, Hej

why'd u try to wear me down?
how much is it worth for u to wear the crown?
i know it's hard for u to back down now

*hej hej
u've gotta wake up
hej hej
and u've gotta grow up
hej hej
u've gotta stop counting the notches on ur belt little games we play with our heads keep creeping back to me in little tiny threads and i know just why u won't look me in the eye

i know it's not easy to live alone but that's the way it is each day that u forget to phone oh i know it's hard when u think u're in control...
