

Sky, City Lies

Written By: Antoine Sicotte / Anastasia Friedman

Love and hate
It ain't too late
Guess I'll stay a while
So come and fade into space it's wicked outside
Milky way is calling, and the stars are falling

The city lies asleep tonight
While we play pirates in the sky
So hold me tight, don't lose my sight
Wrap yourself around me
What would you do ?
If you woke up soon
Instead of the sun-hang the moon
Would you cry?
For lost time, let's go play outside
Milky way is calling, and the stars are falling

CHORUS

There is no rhythm
There is no rhyme
I've lost my place
I've lost my time

CHORUS
