Skye, Love Show

Sit down
Give me your hand
I'm gonna tell you the future
I see you
Living happily
With somebody who really suits you
Someone like me

Stand still Breathe in Are you listening?

You don't know Somebody's aching Keeping it all in Somebody won't let go Of his heart But the truth is It's painless Letting your love show

Break down
Give me some time
I don't want the fear to confuse you
Right now
It's so wrong
But maybe it's all in the future
With someone like you

Stand still Breathe in Are you listening?

You don't know Somebody's aching Keeping it all in Somebody won't let go Of his heart But the truth is It's painless Letting your love show

Maybe truth
Maybe lies
Made me want you

Maybe dumb Maybe wise I don't know

Somebody's aching Keeping it all in Somebody won't let go Of his heart But the truth is It's painless Letting your love show

You don't know Somebody's hurting Holding it all in Somebody can't let go Of his heart But the truth is It's painless Letting your love show

Letting your love show
