

Skye, Said And Done

Can it be simple, just as they so, to let it go?
Could be easy as ABC, 123?
Is it possible at all to move on and not look back?
Not to dwell not to think of how it could've been
Between me and you?

Much more than a second guess
It's easier said but it is done
Can't keep falling over and over
It's over it's said and done

You see, it's just like this, stick or twist
It's up to you, you choose
I've made my choice
I'm not holding on, no no no

Much more than a second guess
It's easier said but it is done
Can't keep falling over and over
It's over it's said and done

Hold it open, waiting for the right line
Blow it away
I can't hold it open, waiting for the right time
To blow it away

Much more than a second guess
It's easier said but it is done
Can't keep falling over and over
It's over that's why we don't need to run

Much more than a second guess
It's easier said but it is done
Can't keep falling over and over
It's over it's said and done

Much more than a second guess
It's easier said but it is done
I won't keep falling over and over
It's over. It's over. It's over
