

Slash, Fill My World (ft. Myles Kennedy and The

And when the silence comes
It breaks my heart
When I'm lonely
I always fall apart

And when I'm left behind
I climb the walls
Never knowing
If you really cared at all

Did you get to where you're going
To the place you're meant to be
Still I'm holding out that you'll return to me

Somewhere
Somewhere beyond

Turn the key
Please come back to me
What I'd give to know you'll fill my world again

The wind is screaming out
I pace the floor
And I wonder will I see your face once more

You were always here to save me
Like sentinel in the dark

As the thunder keeps on rolling
Through my heart

But still Someway
I keep holding On

Turn the key
Please come back to me
For how long will you be gone
I'm barely breathing

Because all I know
Is that I miss you so
What I'd give to know you'll fill my world again
