

Sławek Uniatowski, Tell Me Who You Are

Tell me who you are where you've been?
I'll change my life
if I have to. Stay!
Stay just where way you are.

If I could lie,
in the blink of an eye
I'd make you stay around somehow.

If I could love,
I would break up
with the lush life
I can't control.

Tell me who you are
where you've been?
I'll change my life
if I have to. Stay!
Stay just where way you are.

If I could find
a friend of a kind,
I could be someone to lean on.

If I was sure that you wanna know
I'd show you what I keep under wraps.

Tell me who you are
where you've been?
I'll change my life
if I have to. Stay!
Stay just where way you are.
