

Slayer, Cast The First Stone

When war cries echoing all begin
Never know any other way to fight, just win.
Blood on the enemy, with dependencies due
You know that sacrifice starts with you!

Cast the first stone standing my way
Impedance you owe with blood you will pay!

... the intention you even ...
Your defiance will prove severe
Choke your own blood, beaten' in pain
Realize you now find it all in vain

Cast the first stone standing my way
Impedance you owe with blood you will pay!

When war cries
... are you!

You can feel that sweeping everywhere I want
Like a devastating fire every time i cough
Manifested incompetent you can't stop
A blood is ... from my shoulder

Cast the first stone standing my way
Impedance you owe with blood you will pay!
