Slayer, Stain Of Mind

(Music: Hanneman, Lyrics: King)

Imagine Humanity's decline Step inside my stain of mind

Infesting superiority

Infectious immorality oh yea

Come worship the place no truths are told

Praise the land where sins are sold

No passion no love your faith evades

Never see yourself again that way

Death becomes your bride

Lifelessness invades your eyes

In fire baptized

All pain sifts through myu soul

You'll never feel greater misery

Master of my enemy

Let the purest stain of mind

Wash the virtue from your eyes

As one the collective unifies

Emanate a faithless shine

Forever creation has conceived

Birth of destruction spreads its wings oh yea

Chaotic rebirth a new domain

Re-live the sight the sound the pain

Erotic the taste of agony

Adorn the scars of inhumanity

This is what you see

Deep inside of me

Agony is life

Lechery is life

Godlessness is life

Purgatory magnified

In fire baptized

All pain sifts through my soul

You'll never feel greater misery

Master of my enemy

Let the purest stain of mind

Wash the virtue from your eyes

Enticing malevolence allures

Bastardize the clean and pure

Salvation forever crucified

I choose the other side oh yea

Entire, complete serenity

Injected intravenously

Transgression euphoric bliss divine

Initiate a timeless stain of mind

Blood will sterilize

In fire I baptized

All pain sifts through my soul

You'll never feel greater misery

Master of my enemy

Let the purest stain of mind

Wash the virtue from your eyes
