

Smash Into Pieces, The Tide

(Can't stop the tide from coming')
(Can't stop the tide from coming')

Can one man carry that power
And keep his good intentions
(And keep his good intentions)
Can one man shoulder that burden
And stay with his intentions
(And stay with his intentions)
One taste of control
That is all he knows

Can't stop the tide from coming'
No use in runnin' from the darker side
It's closing in you
Can't keep yourself from turning
No use in fighting who you are inside
There's nothing you can do
Against the tide

Can your heart handle this pressure
Or will you let that water crush you
Let that water crush you
Can you take the pain over pleasure
Or will you give in like they all do
One taste
Of control
That is all he knows

Can't stop the tide from coming'
No use in runnin' from the darker side
It's closing in you
Can't keep yourself from turning
No use in fighting who you are inside
There's nothing you can do
Against the tide
Against the tide
Against the tide

You waiting in silence
Creating the sirens
We're heading into war

You always aim higher
The fool is a fighter
Control their minds

Can't stop the tide from coming
Can't stop to keep in running

Can't stop the tide from coming
No use in runnin' from the darker side
It's closing in you
Can't keep yourself from turning
No use in fighting who you are inside
There's nothing you can do
Against the tide
