

Smaxone, Afterlife

Wake me up in front
Of an angels eyes
I'm now so far away
Please decide to guide
Me to my surprise
I'll hold on
I'll stand by
Take me to a planet
So far outside
Then I won't crack
I won't hide
I will not hide

Mindtrap, unfolding
Inside the places
I've never seen
I'm now, I try to find
Reasons for me to stay so
Tell me how I will know
If this is afterlife
Break me, to take me
To make me realize

Striking lightnings in the sky
Now it's my turn to seek
And find what you hide
I'd like to go
Striking lightnings in the sky
Now it's my turn to seek
And find what you hide
I'd like to go there

Know me when I reach you with no disguise
Now that I've come so far
Touch me just to know that I'm by your side
Then I'll stay, then I won't die

Mindtrap, unfolding
Inside the places
I've never seen
I'm now, I try to find
Reasons for me to stay so
Tell me how I will know
If this is afterlife
Break me, to take me
To make me realize

Striking lightnings in the sky
Now it's my turn to seek
And find what you hide
I'd like to go
Striking lightnings in the sky
Now it's my turn to seek
And find what you hide
I'd like to go there

We try but I can go
Without your guidance
Feels like you're flying
But you're outside inside
How can I find you
When this place is so distant
How do I find you
When you're so far away

Tell me how I will know
If this is afterlife
Break me, to take me
To make me realize

Striking lightnings in the sky
Now it's my turn to seek
And find what you hide
I'd like to go
Striking lightnings in the sky
Now it's my turn to seek
And find what you hide
I'd like to go there
