

Smoking Popes, Halfway

Halfway in and I'm feeling so left alone
Look right through and it's hard enough to see it go
Am I blind to think that it would never end
Left behind I should've known that it was over then
And it's all gone now
It's so sad to say it
And you're so down
It's so sad to see you
Lost and found
And those feelings are dragging you down
Feeling so, feeling low down
And we're nowhere near the end
And it's all gone now
It's so sad to say it
And you're so down
It's so sad to see you
It's so sad to see you go
