

Snap, Lady Madonna Feat. Mike Voila

this brand new skin
is wearing thin
and youll never know until its gone what does it take to get this through to you subject yourself to things that you deserve just stop me if youve heard enuff of wat you shouldve said n dun the promises that never last you could waste your whole life, youll never get the best of mine.
how far did you go just to destroy yourself tuck in your shirt, but its falling out tomorrow may come easy to you like yesterday was never there suprising as it always seems you could take a lifetime youll never get the best of mine
this brand new skin
is wearing thin
