Sneaker Pimps, Unattach

Unattach to now Long to be so uninvolved Try to want to know How to fall and what's been shown

Reserve the right to never tell Silence tells you more

I can take the rest down I can take the rest down

Hang opinion round Hopes ballooning as we wait Never standing ground Making moves to compensate

I can't wait to see you try Suits me when you fail

I can take the rest down I can take the rest down

Try so hard to plan a route Of some escape from algebra Lost, confess no claim to truth Limit me to something more

Reserve the right to never tell Silence tells you more

'Cause I can take the rest down 'Cause I can take the rest down

I can take the rest down I can take the rest down
