Tony don't call no more Don't have it on more Maybe there is something wrong with his phone Maybe it's mornin' and the thrill is gone And I'm not sure That I'm still respected And I'm not in a rush To fill rejected, not by Tony Tony don't care no more He doesn't want me there no more I just want to know what I did wrong Damn, this would make a real good song I don't have these nights too often I wish I could take my mind off him But I really like Tony And he wasn't just some regular guy Tony, actually the other night, oh why? I could've been in love by now If it wasn't for Tony I could've been in love by now If it wasn't for Tony Me and Tony don't speak no more It almost been a week, oh no My how time goes so fast But I still refuse to call his ass I remember the way that I reacted And today is even more attractive But I really miss Tony Then Tony call me one day He said that he just called to say, hey And it wasn't until he called me back That I realized I needed more than that I'm a love wiser and a little older Hey baby, it was nice to know ya, good bye, Tony Still he wasn't just some regular guy Tony actually the other night, oh why? I could've been in love by now If it wasn't for Tony I could've been in love by now If it wasn't for Tony I don't go with yesterday no more Now I'm feeling free (I'm feeling free) Today and tomorrow told me (What they said?) That's where I should be (That's where I should be) That's where I should be (So I'm moving) I'm moving (So I'm moving on) I'm going, can't wait forever (I'm moving on) I'm going (So I'm moving on) I'm leaving I miss you, baby Still he wasn't just some regular guy Tony is actually the other night

If it wasn't for Tony
