

Solstice, Not alone

Look at me
And tell me what you want to see
Am I not good enough?
Am I worth anything?
Just.
Walk away
Theres nothing you could ever say
To mend this broken heart
Just tell me Im good enough
And Im not worthless
Make me understand
That I am not alone in here
I am not alone, not alone
You dont know
The places that I will go
Should I run away?
Or am I able to stay?
Just.
Walk away
Theres nothing you could ever say
To mend this broken heart
Just tell me Im good enough
And Im not worthless
Make me understand
That I am not alone in here
I have won
I am not alone in here
I am not alone, not alone
Im not alone...
Alone....
Im not alone...
Alone...
