

Son By Four, Sofia

I fell in love with a beautiful Puerto Rican girl and her name was Sofia
I met her in San Juan and I knew she had to be the one, mi nia bonita
Thought everything was fine every time when
I looked into her Spanish eyes, how was I to know
That she wasn't really mine, in her eyes, there was another guy that gave her amor

She couldn't see, that my love was all she'll ever need
That in my heart she's the air I breathe
I feel her all over my body
Sofia, she's the love de mi vida
Sofia, and she's driving me crazy
Sofia, she's the love de mi vida
Oh mi nia bonita
Sofia, and I know someday she's coming back to stay

I can see her every night in my mind as I fantasize that she's still with me
But I can't deny everytime the sun rises and I open up my eyes,
I feel so lonely

Thought everything was fine everytime when
I looked into her Spanish eyes, how was I to know
That she wasn't really mine, in her eyes, there was another guy that gave her amor
She couldn't see, that my love was all she'll ever need
That in my heart she's the air I breathe
I feel her all over my body
Sofia, she's the love de mi vida
Sofia, and she's driving my crazy
Sofia, she's the love de mi vida
Oh mi nia bonita
Sofia, and I know someday she's coming back to stay
