

SoNatalie, If The Sky

Oh, I'd love to have the best notes
To write a melody that
Would describe your soul.
When you are here there is no maybe
the feeling's so amazing
just never let it go

If the sky was mine
I would steal every cloud
then make you lie down
And watch the world around

If I owned every bird
they would sing out loud
all your favorite songs
for as long as you want

If all the colours belonged to me
I'd make the sky pink
The grass will be no longer green
I'll paint every single leaf
Now enjoy our own paradise
I made it just for you and I
I know, I'm sure it's true

Oh, I'd love to have the best notes
To write a melody that
Would describe your soul
When you are here there is no maybe
the feeling's so amazing
just never let it go

no, no, no

I know that life is short (short, short)
and we both want more (more, more)
I don't wanna not know (know, know)
what the story unfolds

Pretty boys come and go (go, go)
True friends stay close (close, close)
Cause even if you're not sure (sure, sure)
You're going nowhere alone

If the colours belonged to me?

Oh, I'd love to have the best notes?.

If the sky was mine (if the sky was mine)
I would steal every cloud (steal every cloud)
Yeah yeah yeah (yeah yeah yeah)
Wow wow wow (wow wow wow)
Yeah (Yeah)
Wow (wow)
Yeah (yeah) wow (wow)

If all the colours belonged?

Oh, I'd love to have the best notes?
