Sonic Youth, Blink

I can see My body move It goes without me What I used to be Prove it A breath for you No kiss My tears they fly In the wind I blink you die Cuz you believe In what I can see My body moves It goes without me It used to dance one two one two It used to prance one two one two Now I follow you Forever You compell me to Fly.... flew.. I blink and see Nothing Forever One two one two I ache for you My soul has got a hole To see you through
