Soundgarden, Non-State Actor

Caught in every pocket, from miles to fill So weak in the land, strong in the will I?ll be your beast and butter I?m there to see

I?II bring you were here, feel your disease I drink dirty water and make it clean With you I am the cure, I am the drug

And we settle for a little bit more than everything We?re not elected but we will speak We?re not the chosen, but we believe And we settle for a little bit more than everything

Yeah!

Bullets guided missiles in soul and in sync Yeah motherless country only I?ve seen You are the taken rockets, I am the bomb I?ll teach you a lesson, so far up in Breathe in, turn the pages, just a real man You are the ___ I am the poor

And we settle for a little bit more than everything We?re not elected but we will speak We?re not the chosen, but we believe And we settle for a little bit more than everything

I?m a non-state actor I?m a non-state actor I?m a non-state actor I?m a non-state I?m a non-state actor

And we settle for a little bit more than everything We?re not elected but we will s?eak We?re not the chosen, but we believe And we settle for a little bit more than everything a little bit more a little bit more a little bit more a little bit more a little bit more
