Soundgarden, Storm

The storm has weakened minds of steel They dream to capture hopeless ones This fear has passed and many can be Those words unspoken we know it straight We know it straight It's straight

Watch as they're on faceless Faceless We waited there, faceless, faceless My heart comes seeking faces My, all around me is faceless

The storm has weakened minds of steel They dream to capture hopeless ones This fear has passed and many can be Those words unspoken we know it straight We know it straight It's straight

Watch as they're on faceless Faceless We waited there, faceless, faceless My heart comes seeking faces My, all around me is faceless

All hope follows corrupt All hope follows corrupt All straight follows corrupt All straight follows corrupt /4x
