

Spain, I Lied

Holding hands down by the shore
And I know God knows it feels so fine
Holding hands down by the shore
And I know God knows it feels so fine
I said I loved you
I said I loved you
Holding hands down by the shore
Leaned over and whispered in your ear
But I lied
I lied
I couldn't love you if I tried
Holding you in my arms
In my bed God knows it feels so fine
Holding you in my arms
In my bed God knows it feels so fine
I said I loved you
I said I loved you
Holding you in my arms
In my bed I whispered in your ear
But I lied
I lied
I feel so dead inside
I couldn't love you if I tried
