

Squad Five-O, Holding Out

i will not sell out, i will not give in the strangle hold of society was bringing me down, but i broke free i'm never going back to the way i was i've found the truth i was looking for holding out for a better deal i've seen the Truth, i know it's real holding out for a better day a new tomorrow, a better way i will not conform to the pattern of this world instead i will be transformed by the renewing of my mind and spirit my strength come from God who gives me power to bear it I'M HOLDING OUT!!
