

SR-71, Empty Spaces

I'm not afraid to go backwards and fix what we broke
My gaze falls behind, you make desire seem so easy
I hold off sleep, it's so silent without you here
Don't give up now, it would all be for nothing

(refrain)

I believe in second chances
I believe the years forget
So let me fill these empty spaces
Better late than never / Stay forever
Let me fill this empty space
There's always room for one more mistake

Can you feel that
I think we're moving in the right direction
I was someone else then
I'd take it back if you would let me

(refrain)

We were never this close when we were young
Every night I whisper your name at the top of my lungs
Yeah, eahhhhhh

I'm not afraid
I'm not afraid

(refrain)
