SR-71, Empty Spaces

I'm not afraid to go backwards and fix what we broke My gaze falls behind, you make desire seem so easy I hold off sleep, it's so silent without you here Don't give up now, it would all be for nothing

(refrain)
I believe in second chances
I believe the years forget
So let me fill these empty spaces
Better late than never / Stay forever
Let me fill this empty space
There's always room for one more mistake

Can you feel that I think we're moving in the right direction I was someone else then I'd take it back if you would let me

(refrain)

We were never this close when we were young Every night I whisper your name at the top of my lungs Yeah, eahhhhhh

I'm not afraid I'm not afraid

(refrain)
