

SR-71, Go Away

Once inside the door I check my face in the mirror
And I look past this lonely minute Was this the ride worth waiting for I'm scared to death that now I've missed it.
But she was not the only stone, skipped across this gravel road leading down
this path of loneliness.
So I'll fly from this hate, pray my soul the Lord will take me to a place through time and indifference.

Chorus:

I wanna know
How do you feel?
I wanna know
If this was real...
So tell me what you would say
If you could make this pain go away

she plans her future looking bright ahead leaves me in the past.
I can't stand to hang out with my co-dependent friends
My patience is fading fast but every sign and every song is tellin' me that I don't belong
But it's ok to feel scared.
'cuz one day soon i'll find myself and realize that no one else
will make me feel stupid!

Chorus

Cause there's this old man down in Fell's Point Always hangin' around.
Tellin' me: "Son. The pendulum swings both ways, but for you, it'll always swing down!"

Chorus
