St. Vincent, Birth In Reverse

Oh what an ordinary day Take out the garbage, masturbate I'm still holding for the laugh

The dogs will bark, so let them bark The birds will cry, I'll let them cry Here's my report from the edge

Like a birth in reverse What I saw through the blinds You could say that I'm sane In phenomenal lies I'm the cause; make a turn Near the party line Like a birth in reverse in America

This too will haunt me through the war Laugh all you want, but I want more Cause what I'm swearing, I never sworn before

Like a birth in reverse What I saw through the blinds You could say that I'm sane In phenomenal lies I'm the cause; make a turn Near the party line Like a birth in reverse in America
