

Stan Ridgway, Brand New Special And Unique

Youth is truth they say
And old is rolled away
Grey is shown the door
While youth just paints the floor
With many colors
Bright and rainbow colors
Bright and rainbow colors
Youth is truth they say
And old is rolled away
Grey is shown the door
While youth just paints the floor
Place your seats in view

And call your guards back home
Youth will watch our gates
And yell and scream our fates
And grey will write our say
But soon will move away
To the land of ancient things
Old and ancient things
Brand new, special and unique
Bring the new, replace the antique
