

Staring Back, Mom

My mom likes to hang around
It doesnt bother me at all
Shes got more tattoos than my friends combined
and all the vinyl records I cant find
She was around in seventy-seven and around in eighty-four
My friends say for a mom shes pretty hardcore
She said she started the Xs on the straightedge hands
She started the mosh and the floorpunch and hung around with hardcore bands
Shes my mom and Im proud to say to her crew in New York and east bay
My hardcore mommy dearest is here to stay
Shes my hardcore mom
She played bass for agnostic front
Tats of daggers on her thumbs
Yeah yeah yeah shes my hardcore mom
She likes to hang around
It doesnt bother me at all
Shes got more tattoos than my friends combined
and all the vinyl records I cant find
My friends say for a mom shes pretty hardcore
