

Staszek Plewniak, Michał Salamon, The Fall

Hush now dear
And hold your fire
Miles away
Stalled in time
Watch the wind
Ruffles the sky
Your distant sigh
And your drunken smile
Our hearts and veins
On a different fire
Wind and time
Shatters the sky
Say no more
Holt the time
Hold your fire
On a cold cold night
Hush now dear
There is no one else
Let the storm
Come and bring the change
Wind and time
Shatters the sky
(...voice from distance)
Holt the time
Hold your fire
Wind has changed
It's a cold cold night
Calling wind and time
to purify the sky
All the charred remains
Of what we are
Calling wolfs of fears
To bless them all
And embrace the storm
Growing for so long
Calling wind and time
To purify the sky
Let it all be gone
To say good bye
Calling wind and time
To purify the sky
Let it all be gone
To say good bye
