

Steel Pulse, Caught You Dancing

You were standing there
When I first laid eyes upon you
You were looking fair
When I first set eyes upon you
I was so scared to talk to you yeh
You hypnotised me with

CHORUS

The music that you dancing to
The music that you dancing to
My lovely yes you've tricked me
My lovely you disowned me

CHORUS

Unto you I went
Like a lamb right to the slaughter
One and one makes two
I thought happiness ever after
I should have known it was one big fairy tale yeh
You hypnotised me with

SCAT

I was so scared to talk to you yeh
You mesmerised me with
The music that you dancing to
I caught you dancing
I I yeh I I yeh.
