

Stellar, Grave

Faded, And I really can't escape it
Cuz the feelin' is elated
I wonder why I do this to myself
Lately, I can't help but feelin' jaded
So I end up getting wasted
Don't really wanna be with no one else

I spend my days
Dancin' on my grave
But it's ok, there's nothing left to save
Cuz my heart is made of stone
And I have nowhere left to go
So I spend my days
Dancin' on my grave

I don't know what you've been told
But I've been young, and I've been bold
And I think that I'm getting lost again
Mind of steel, and heart of stone
But I've been diggin' up a hole
And I think that I'm getting buried in

I spend my days
Dancin' on my grave
But it's ok, there's nothing left to save
Cuz my heart is made of stone
So I spend my days
Dancin' on my grave
