

Stem, The Beast From The Great Beyond

There's your default concrete sill
Dimensions crossed and parallel
A pair of blinders now hanging along
Stakes too high for getting it wrong
Extremes peaked up like never before
Strappes tighten not to be left ignored
A pair of blinders now hanging along
Stakes too high for getting it wrong

Ref:
Is this really what's supposed expected
Name ways for one feel accepted
It's never too late for
For the pretended days
But now I see
Now I see it all

Mystical
Far more greater than the lot of you
Supernatural
Undeniable
Mystical
Indestructible
The beast from the great beyond
Things I can change must go my way
Pumped up bloodstreams to see
The beast from the deep within

Name ways for one feel accepted
It's never too late for
For the pretended days
But now I see
Now I see it all
