

Stephanie Dosen, Owl In The Dark

Years, and years of silence
Feathers on the ground
Now a dusty ghost is stirring
And I wonder where you are
And I wonder where you are
And if I'm just an owl in the dark
Searching in the stars

Cross the wide Missouri
Underneath a spell
I lost you in a whirlwind
And I wonder where you are
And I wonder where you are
And if I'm just an owl in the dark
Searching in the stars
I will find you
And still we will remain

And if I'm just an owl in the dark
Searching in the stars
I will find you
And still we will remain
And still we will remain
And still we will remain
