Stephanie Dosen, Owl In The Dark

Years, and years of silence Feathers on the ground Now a dusty ghost is stirring And I wonder where you are And I wonder where you are And if I'm just an owl in the dark Searching in the stars

Cross the wide Missouri
Underneath a spell
I lost you in a whirlwind
And I wonder where you are
And I wonder where you are
And if I'm just an owl in the dark
Searching in the stars
I will find you
And still we will remain

And if I'm just an owl in the dark Searching in the stars I will find you And still we will remain And still we will remain And still we will remain
