

Stryper, Take It to the Cross

We try to carry the weight of the world
When we could just lay it all down
Often we bury the hatchet within
As we sing to drown
Make the mistake
And we'll do it again
And maybe not
Ever to learn
One day we'll wake
And the light will be seen
And we will discern it all

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

The flesh is so weak
But the spirit is strong
Faith could move
Mountains away
Why do we seek
Everything that is wrong
And become the prey
We were created yet that is debated
But Christ said it so perfectly
"I am the way and the truth
And the life and you get to
The father through me"
Through me!

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross
Take it to the cross

Take it to the cross
