THE WILD ONES

anderson / butler

there's a song playing on the radio sky high in the airwaves on the morning show and there's a lifeline slipping as the record plays and as i open the blinds in my mind i'm believing that you could stay and oh if you stay i'll chase the rainblown fields away we'll shine like the morning and sin in the sun oh if you stay we'll be the wild ones, running with the dogs today there's a song playing through another wall all we see and believe is the d.j. and the debts dissolve and it's a shame the plane is leaving on this sunny day cos on you my tattoo will be bleeding and the name will stain but oh if you stay we'll ride from disguised suburban graves we'll go from the bungalows where the debts still grow each day and oh if you stay i'll chase the rainblown fears away we'll shine like the morning and sin in the sun oh if you stay we'll be the wild ones running with the dogs today
