

Sugababes, Never Gonna Dance Again

Circles on the floor
I'm getting down, low
But things ain't right, you're gone
I'm losing ground, no

Do you remember when your head was mine?
It's all I ever think when it comes to you and I
No I can't feel right, I'll be good and seal the deal
The rhythm can't just go, its the only thing I feel

"And so I'm never gonna dance again
I lost my rhythm when you said it's over
And as the final record starts to play
I feel the dance floor turning colder

And so I'm never gonna dance again
'Cause all the music in my world has faded
I know it's never gonna be the same
I guess the moves just never made it"

From the start, a work of art
A perfect picture painting that I store in my heart
We weren't so bright to know we couldn't get it right
Our bodies intertwined now I can't get you off my mind

As we dance, you know
Or feelings show
You oughta know you got me
As we dance, we know
My heart's exposed
Now I'm alone you left me

"And so I'm never gonna dance again
I lost my rhythm when you said it's over
And as the final record starts to play
I feel the dance floor turning colder

And so I'm never gonna dance again
Cause all the music in my world has faded
I know it's never gonna be the same
I guess the moves just never made it"

I'm getting dumped, the rhythm's all wrong
The record goes around, they're playing our song
I gave into the groove but it's giving me pain
There's nothing you can do for me, Mr. DJ

"And so I'm never gonna dance again
I lost my rhythm when you said it's over
And as the final record starts to play
I feel the dance floor turning colder

And so I'm never gonna dance again
Cause all the music in my world has faded
I know it's never gonna be the same
I guess the moves just never made it

It's over, it's over
And so I'm never gonna dance again
It's over, it's over
And so I'm never gonna dance again

It's over, it's over
And so I'm never gonna dance again

It's over, it's over
And so I'm never gonna dance again""
