

Sum 41, Dear Father

I adressed this letter to &quot;dear father&quot;
I know you as complete unknown
I guess it's better you don't bother
All our truth should be left alone
Be left alone
Be left alone

I learned the things you never showed me
Took the chances you'd have blown
And to this day, the one and only,
You remain a complete unknown
Complete unknown
Complete unknown

You're out there somewhere,
I don't know if you care, at all,
It seems that you don't
And since if that day will never come,
So you remain a complete unknown (unknown, unknown, unknown ..)

So many years have been ignored,
You've been gone without a trace
I'm getting used to knowing you're just a name without a face
Without a face
Without a face.

You're out there somewhere,
I don't know if you care, at all,
It seems that you don't
And since if that day will never come,
So you remain a complete unknown

You're out there somewhere,
I don't know if you care, at all,
It seems that you don't
And since if that day will never come,
So you remain a complete unknown (unknown, unknown, unknown ..)

I adressed this letter to &quot;dear father&quot;
I know you as complete unknown
I guess it's better you don't bother
All our truth should be left alone

You're out there somewhere,
I don't know if you care, at all,
It seems that you don't
And since if that day will never come,
So you remain a complete unknown

You're out there somewhere,
I don't know if you care, at all,
It seems that you don't
And since if that day will never come,
So you remain a complete unknown

You're out there somewhere,
I don't know if you care.