

Sum 41, Hooch

It's your last chance to find yourself in consequence.
It's so hard to find a simple reason.
Maybe I'll find myself with evidence.
Hate breeds with nothing to believe in.

Another day, another day in paradise.
If you only knew wouldn't it be nice.
Get away get away get away.
I'm about to detonate.

Everything to prove,
Nothing to lose
Just when everything has fallen to the ground,
Gonna knock it down
Just believe me when I tell you it's alright.

This time we're on our way to tragedy
Forever bored and outside from the in crowd.
I've come to grip confronting my reality.
Numb-struck it's me against the world now.

For all you know, for all you know it's not for real.
Spare me the obsession that you deal.

Get away get away get away.
I'm about to detonate
Everything to prove,
Nothing to lose
Just when everything has fallen to the ground,
Gonna knock it down
Just believe me when I tell you it's alright.

Everything to prove,
Nothing to lose
Just when everything has fallen to the ground,
Gonna knock it down
Just believe me when I tell you it's alright.

I should've know right from the start
That you'd take this trust and rip me apart.
Could it be a change of heart?

I'll fall into you, but don't believe that this is real.
I'll fall into you, but don't believe that this is real.
I'll fall into you, but don't believe that this is real.
I'll fall into you, but don't believe that this is real.
