

Sum 41, Pull The Curtain

(Where'd I go wrong?)
Pull the curtains begin paranoia's wearing thin now
It's wearing thin now
(Where'd I go wrong?)
Close my eyes realize I've become the victimized now
Desensitized now

The one and only day has come. I pay for all the bad things I've done.

(Where'd I go wrong?)
Something's wrong because I find the the glamour in the dark side
In the dark side
(Where'd I go wrong?)
Cheap regrets, can't forget, falling victim to the debts still.
Unpaid in my mind.

The one and only day has come. I pay for all the bad things I've done.

It's gonna take me, you don't know tragedy
I've been to hell and back again to tell it
Close my eyes and lay me down to sleep
I fear the worst; my beating heart ticks to explode
My time is up so...

Why can't I just die!?

Living dead awake the horror show begins so pull the curtains over me...

Bring on the panic the uncontrolled and manic
It's a free-for-all kill them all every last one of them
I don't care at all

Suffocate the dreams in my mind
(I can't stop believing)
Drown the thoughts that have me confined
(Stop this heart from bleeding)
Gutter dreams as black as the night
(Bombed and dead utopia)
No one told me empathy's a lie
(Lost in paranoia)

Suffocate the dreams in my mind
(My last words I'm choking, are all my dreams broken?) (I can't stop believing)
Drown the thoughts that have me confined
(The silence is defeating, my ears won't stop ringing.) (Stop this heart from bleeding)
Gutter dreams as black as the night
(My last words I'm choking, are all my dreams broken?) (Bombed and dead utopia)
No one told me empathy's a lie
(The silence is defeating, my ears won't stop ringing.) (Lost in paranoia)

Now we're gone
Do you still feel the same, well now
Can't you see, I need help?
To stop before myself
Can't you help me now?
