

SVRCINA, Runaway W. You

You have brought to light
A heart like a window
Keeping the blinds closed

You have crossed a line
South of the ocean
High off a moment

And I don't mind, no
To taste this honest love
Oh I need Somebody to show me
This side of the sun

It's like I knew right when I found ya
I found something I couldn't lose, couldn't lose
I know you feel it
I feel it too, and don't care what it takes
I'll runaway with you
I'll runaway
I'll runaway with you
I'll runaway
It's all I wanna do
Just runaway
Yeah
And I don't care what it takes
Just me and you

Time just seems to pass
Mind of a drifter never been safer
We shared our fading past
Down to the wire
Building the fire

And I don't mind, no
To taste this honest love
Oh I need Somebody to show me
This side of the sun

It's like I knew right when I found ya
I found something I couldn't lose, couldn't lose
I know you feel it
I feel it too, and don't care what it takes
I'll runaway with you
I'll runaway
I'll runaway with you
I'll runaway
It's all I wanna do
Just runaway
Yeah
And I don't care what it takes
Just me and you

Yeah
Cause I know
You feel it too
Oh I know
You do
Oh I know
You feel it too
Cause I feel it too

It's like I knew right when I found ya
I found something I couldn't lose, couldn't lose
I know you feel it

I feel it too, and don't care what it takes
I'll runaway with you
I'll runaway
I'll runaway with you
I'll runaway
It's all I wanna do
Just runaway
Yeah
And I don't care what it takes
Just me and you
