

Sweet, Anthem No. I (Lady Of The Lake)

(Connolly/Scott/Tucker/Priest)

Your are the queen
I'm just a pawn
In the Chess game of Life
Send me to war
A Whisper to the king
Of the favours you gave me
I will take my chance
On a crusade of love

Be my lady of the lake
Come love me before it's too late
Be my lady of the lake
For the angel with the sword of death won't wait
The colours that I wear
Show me just how much you care
Lady

My body is done
My soul will return
To the Lady of the Lake
Dying came too soon
Cry no more tears
There's love after life
A king and his queen everlasting light

Be my lady of the lake
Come love me before it's too late
The colours that I wear
Show me just how much you care Lady.
