Sweet Noise, Down

Flash of sense
Released the pain
Sister, brother
Don't you go, go away
I'm scared to death
Weakened
I cross the cold land
Little pieces of faith
Like thorns cut my feet
Down, I'm goin down

Creep, walk Back, forth Lost faith Hope died Low, lower Low, lower Hate's strong Pain's stronger Night is cold The sun went down The moon Outside Shines so bright Well, it takes me down To a place I know It ain't changed My bed still's there Sister, brother

I'm goin down

I believe in no-one I trust myself Sun is goin' down
