

Sweet Savage, Why

????????? In the middle
Sing a song going down
On the other side of town
Tonight

Hmm, tonight

????????? In the middle
I can't help believing
Everything's gonna be
All right

Now that you're leaving
All the tears in your eyes
Don't disguise
How you're feeling sad
Inside

Now that you're going
All the sands on the world
Say you won't be coming back
No more

I've heard it all before

Tell me why, why, why
Why do we cry
Why standing all now
In the cold

Overwhelmed that you're in singing
In the streets the judge failed bring in
They're crying out
We want no more

????????? And mothers crying
In the city the innocent dying
Let's send it now
We want no more

So tell me why, why, why
Why do we cry
Who's to blame
Now let us know

So tell me why, why, why
Why do we die
We stand alone now
In the cold

[Guitar solo]

So tell me why, why, why
Why do we cry
Who's to blame
Now let us know

So tell me why, why, why
Why do we die
We stand alone now
In the cold

Give and take
And compromised

Wipe the tear
From a children's eyes
We've had enough
We want now more
