

Sweetbox, One Kiss

Maybe I'm tired of being the strong one
Maybe my romantic side's taking over me, I don't know
In a single moment
You took over me and left me trembling and weak
And I just can't stay away

Just one kiss
One touch
Is not enough
Don't you feel the same
Your smile your look straight in my heart
Don't you want the same
Maybe I'm wrong but I can't get over this
One kiss
One touch
Its not enough
Oh can't you feel the same...the same...the same

I never believed in finding the perfect love
I never believed that I would find something
That I can't give up
But you make me shiver
Let me let me in, let me trembling and weak
And I just cant stay away

Just one kiss
One touch
Is not enough
Don't you feel the same
Your smile, your look straight in my heart
Don't you want the same
Maybe I'm wrong but I can't get over this
One kiss
One touch
Its not enough
Oh can't you feel the same...the same...the same
