

Szjerdene, Blue Lullaby

In my heart
In my heart
in my heart it is cold
and in my head
in my head all i think of is yu babe i try and walk away try and walk away frm the shadows that follow me ever since it happened i often ask a question often ask why

it had to be you

and now your gone
it feels like part of me died there with you and i knw you would not want me to cry so this is my mellow lullaby why couldnt it all be so simple because now yur so far away i knw i still miss yu it still feels like only yesterday since yu were here

i remember all the things yu used to be a now thats changed and i realized just wat yu mean to me

hey, hey

In my heart
In my heart
in my heart its just cold, it is cold, it is cold
