

T.I., Hello (feat. Cee-Lo Green)

[Cee-Lo Green:]

Just keep going, and don't look back
And look forward from where you're at
There's some jealousy in your rear-view
Wave hello, hello, hello

Push that pedal to the max
Count that money that's in your lap
There's some jealousy in your rear-view
Hello, hello, hello

(Hello, hello, hello, wave hello, hello, hello)

[T.I.:]

Mashing in the fast lane, envy in my rear-view
Mils in my windshield - keep 'em in a clear view
Cheers to my partners who got it, we finally did it
And here's to the ones with potential to go and get it
We survived yesterday, foreign ride Connoisseurs
Popping fly today, tomorrow ain't promised to us
Grind hard for dirty money but our heart's pure
Steady mobbing on these suckers
Man they're so funny to us

Broke niggas all smiles when they run into us
Get by theyself, they talking tough but don't do nothing to us
Call themselves paper chasing, when wealth be running to us
You violate the Puppet Master, get your string pulled Hustle Gang, King Team, label me the ring leader
Just showing haters the tail lights of my two seaters
Two heaters with me in the ride but I don't need 'em though
Left evil behind me, that's where I plan to keep it, go!

[Cee-Lo Green:]

Just keep going, and don't look back
And look forward from where you're at
There's some jealousy in your rear-view
Wave hello, hello, hello

Push that pedal to the max
Count that money that's in your lap
There's some jealousy in your rear-view
Hello, hello, hello

(Hello, hello, hello, wave hello, hello, hello)

[T.I.:]

I hustle hard, forever shine
Pay haters? No nevermind
Won't stop until we popping bottles at the finish line
Never been the quitting kind, spirit ain't no killing mine
I'm getting mine, you don't like it, nigga, get in line
So many times I've shown dudes I won't lose
Time's precious but waste yours if you want to
Hey I made it and you didn't, for that I ain't to blame
Won't change a thing, the circumstance will remain the same
Can't complain, I'm highly favored, my flavor's God given
So used to hate appreciation is a odd feeling
Still I stay focused on the millions, trying to dodge prison
Praying as if for forgiveness, hoping God listen
As far as dissing me, pimping, go ahead and have a ball
Meanwhile I'm getting bread, determined to have it all
I'm talking money, sonny, if ain't none of that involved
Why is we conversing? This vehicle ain't reversing, go!

[Cee-Lo Green:]

Just keep going, and don't look back
And look forward from where you're at
There's some jealousy in your rear-view
Wave hello, hello, hello

Push that pedal to the max
Count that money that's in your lap
There's some jealousy in your rear-view
Hello, hello, hello

(Hello, hello, hello, wave hello, hello, hello)
