

T.Love, Acid mover

I can't listen to all your lies
I can't find myself in your disguise
I can't talk to you by telephone
I don't want to see you in my home
Babe i think it's time
To change your mind, babe
It's just enough i'd like to give it up
It brings me down it's just too hard my love
You'd like to rule You'd like to by my Jesus
It's not for me It's not for me my little one
Babe i think it's time
To change your mind, babe
I know you thought you've got me now
I know you want to by my detiny
I'm sorry honey but you are wrong
'Cause T'm a mover and I gotta go
Babe i think it's time
To change your mind, babe
