

T.Love, He was born to be a taxi driver

Hey guys, what'ya wanna do
Are you gonna waste the night your way
I wanna spend some time with yoy
I wanna spend some time with my friends

I know one bloke, he has a cab
He is always out of lunch
He knows one chick, she always ready
To play the game with rock'n'roll

Don't you worry about money
Don't you worry about your life
He know one mate he has a cab
He's always out of lunch

He was born to be a taxi driver
He was born as nasty man
He was born to be a taxi driver
Motherfucker, the bit of a kev

He knows all of the city corners
He knows all of the city whores
He has an old radio in his cabby
Some people call him The King Of Noise

Don't you worry about money
Don't you worry about your life
He know one mate he has a cab
He's always out of lunch

He was born to be a taxi driver
He was born as nasty man
He was born to be a taxi driver
Motherfucker, the bit of a kev
